Monroe Bank's Nancy Eberle Receives Certified Residential Mortgage Professional Designation

Bloomington, Ind. and Avon, Ind.: Presented during the Indiana Mortgage Bankers Association (IMBA) 2010 State Convention in Indianapolis (June 9-10), Nancy Eberle, head of Monroe Bank's mortgage division, was awarded the designation of Certified Residential Mortgage Professional (CRMP). The designation attests to employers and clients within Indiana that the individual is a knowledgeable residential mortgage lending professional through work experience, education, and participation in activities of the IMBA.

Eberle was promoted from Vice President, Mortgage Loan Officer to Vice President, Mortgage Loan Manager three years ago to lead Monroe Bank's residential mortgage lending division. Eberle has more than 30 years of banking experience and was recognized as the leading mortgage loan producer for the Bank for many years prior to her management position. She was a recipient of Monroe Bank's 2006 Award for Excellence which recognizes exemplary service to the Bank. Her dedication to the mortgage field is evidenced by her allegiance to continuing education. Her loyalty to the community she serves is borne out by her ongoing involvement in many local and charitable organizations.
